on various questions, ~~which~~ ^{which} ~~and they submitted the following opinion~~ ^{which} was ordered to be entered in the minutes: and the Com^{tee} was continued

" We are of opinion that the time for the Library Company to accept the devise under the will of Dr James Rush has not arrived. Until the Executor shall have completed a building and tendered a conveyance. The Company could do no more than agree to accept at a future time. And we think such an agreement should not be made until the real position of the affairs and the plan of the Executor are better ascertained & the consequences can be considered.

We think therefore that it is expedient to postpone ~~for the present at least~~ any action by the Company in reference to the Will, so far as the observance of those provisions which they are required to observe to avoid disabling themselves from accepting in accordance with the terms of the Will
